News and Notes

- We are so excited to be back for MYF this fall after having a great summer and past year and we hope everyone was able to have a great summer outside of the youth group events! We want to continue to keep that moment and the things we learn. We want to encourage everyone to come often, and to bring friends too so that we can continue to spread the Gospel to all.
- An important date to keep in mind is September 18, we are going to have a parent info night to talk about important dates for trips for winter and summer. We also will talk about fundraisers for that as well and expectations.
- Looking forward to a great upcoming year of continuing to grow as a group together!
