News and Notes

- Hello everyone and welcome to March. Looking ahead we are starting to look towards ReGen which is July 3 - 7. If everyone could get back to me on if they are interested in going to ReGen within the next week or so that would be great so I can start reserving our spot for the event.
- We want to actively be involved in the church community as much as we can, and so we will be looking to participate/hold a fundraiser meal at some point later in the spring likely sometime around the end of April or early May. Nothing is set in stone just yet but wanting to get ahead of the curve get out information as quickly as possible. Hope everyone has a wonderful March!
